

Pacific Center for the Book Arts
BOOKWORKS: Triennial Members' Exhibition

San Francisco Public Library Skylight Gallery, Sixth Floor
100 Larkin Street at Grove
June 18 – August 7, 2011

We are very excited to extend this invitation to participate in PCBA's 2011 triennial exhibition! As a PCBA member, you may submit ONE piece of recent work. All forms of the book are acceptable and welcome, from traditional to experimental. This includes, but is not limited to: binding, letterpress printing, relief printing, xerography, laser printing, papermaking, calligraphy, typography, book design, and illustration. Each entrant will receive an artist directory.

For questions or to volunteer, contact Terry McClain, Exhibitions Coordinator, via email at bookworks.pcba@gmail.com or by phone at (510) 845-5853 between 7-9 pm PST.

WORK MUST BE RECEIVED BY APRIL 1 TO BE INCLUDED IN THE EXHIBIT

*February 28: Entries received by this date will be considered for use in publicity materials!
Please send in the following list:*

- _____ Entry form (make a copy for your records)
- _____ $30 entry fee by check
(payable to PCBA, includes FedEx Ground/Home return delivery after exhibition closes)
- _____ Installation instructions (page 3)
- _____ Your entry (must be received by April 1 to be included in exhibit)
(All work will be exhibited in locked library cases. Check the Entry Form for dimensions).

2-4 pm reception and the Steven P. Corey Award Announcement

August 7, 2011

Exhibit Closes

SFPL's exhibition staff and PCBA volunteers pack entries in their original boxes. Expect to receive them no later than September 7. Sorry, there will be no hand delivery or pick-up of entries this year. PCBA will return your entry to you via FedEx Ground.

Volunteers! The exhibition committee would be grateful for volunteers to help with publicity, the checklist, mailing, installation and the reception. Great fun will be had by all. Please write bookworks.pcba@gmail.com with your contact information.
